

Self-care brand Unplug announces pop-up shops showcasing new merchandise.

PRESS RELEASE MAY 31, 2021

Unplug is a young company attempting to reshape your thinking by bringing real-life mental health awareness to the workplace. It's not you. It's the system.

TALLAHASSEE, FL, MAY 31, 2021 - Unplug gained traction for advocating against the grain of traditional American work culture, consumerism, and addiction to social media. This month marks the expansion of Unplug with its first annual pop-up shops.

Every item costs $25, with half of the proceeds going to mental health advocacy. Unplug has partnered with small retailers to feature the merchandise five days out of the month for the next six months. Below are the cities you can find them. Exact locations will be announced 24 hrs prior via Twitter.

Atlanta, GA
Tallahassee, FL
Raleigh, NC

Cleveland, OH
Nashville, TN
Baltimore, MD

Share on Twitter

Share on LinkedIn

Share on Facebook