

Proud Fort Worth native Mary Carolyn Gatzke, affectionately known as “MC,” has an unmatched knowledge of her hometown’s real estate market, from downtown to the suburbs. Ask her about the history behind the “Central City Classics”, the term she coined for the charming older neighborhoods inside Loop 820. Test her knowledge on Aledo, Crowley, Keller and other neighborhoods sprouting up outside “the loop”. She won’t be stumped. After representing over 100 buyer clients as well as over 100 home sellers, she has seen and heard it all and is ready to put that experience to work for you!

Known as an industry pathfinder, MC is committed to keeping current with today’s changing real estate business. She keeps her finger on the pulse of market trends both locally and nationally. Having three school-aged children of her own, MC is also one of your best resources for Fort Worth schools. She has an extensive relocation clientele to prove it. This commitment, along with more than 200 transactions closed representing buyers and sellers have earned MC professional designations as an Accredited Buyer Representative (ABR), a Certified Residential Specialist (CRS), Graduate Realtor Institute (GRI), and Historic Home Specialist designated by Historic Fort Worth. You can even catch her on HGTV!

Esteemed publications from Fort Worth Texas to 360 West to Texas Monthly, have named her on their annual lists such as “Top Realtor,” “Best Realtors,” and “Top Producers.” The recognition she is most proud of is the continued (2002 to current) recognition from Texas Monthly with the elite in her field as a Five-Star

Professional – a customer-service award nominated and voted on by past clients.

For the first nine years of her real estate career, MC worked as both an Associate and a Broker for Williams Trew. She then partnered her love for real estate with her business savvy and co-founded Bloom Real Estate in 2013. After selling her firm to Briggs Freeman Sotheby in 2016, she has remained a Broker Associate with them and enjoys carrying their prestigious brand to your front yard sign.

Always true to her love for this community, MC volunteers in many roles. From chairing large fundraising events to her board position at Lena Pope, Inc, to her own family's time stuffing care packages and boxed lunches for the underserved, MC believes in giving back to her community, and does so generously.

MC has holds a Bachelors Degree in Marketing and a Masters Degree in Sports Administration from Baylor University. Autumn Saturdays will usually find her watching college football when she's not showing houses.
