No More Painful Goodbyes . . .

They give us their hearts,
all they ask for is our care.

December 2025

Dear <Salutation>,

Our pets love us with a purity that is hard to describe and a loyalty that never wavers. They ask for so little — just food, affection, and a safe place to rest. In return, they give us everything: comfort when we are hurting, joy when we are celebrating, and companionship every moment in between.

If you’ve ever locked eyes with a dog, cat, or other animal and felt your heart swell, you understand — they are not just pets. They are family.

It is painful to think about ever losing our furry friends. But every year, financial hardship, health problems, or any number of obstacles lead to thousands of families having to give up their pets. The impact of this is devastating to both the animals and the people who love them. These are scars that may never heal.

The best place for vulnerable animals is always in a safe home with their family. But so many households are struggling right now. High prices have overwhelmed fragile budgets. Last year, 21,400 pounds of pet food was distributed in our community, and 6,272 family pets were provided with lifesaving care. Our neighbors continue to need our help this year — and yours.

Your gift of $<LG>, $<UG1>, or even a very generous $<UG2> will help more pets stay with their families. Through our supportive programs, you will help ensure the safety and care for animals like Mando.

Ms. Ida West adopted Mando from our shelter after the two fell in love at first sight. Soon after, it became apparent to our Community Impact team that Ms. Ida was having some financial challenges.

With your help, we made sure that Ms. Ida always had the pet food and pet supplies she needed to keep Mando happy and healthy.

Thanks to support from the SPCA of Texas, animals like Mando are able to stay in homes with people who love them. Today, Mando is enjoying his life with Ms. Ida — who stays in touch with the SPCA of Texas to ensure her pup’s needs continue to be met.

It takes a special person and a deep commitment to make a compassionate difference in the lives of pets like Mando. Someone who knows that every dog deserves to be loved — just as they are.

Please make a donation today to help pets heal and stay safe with the families who love them. Your support will ensure that dogs, cats, and other animals can remain with their people, instead of waking up alone and scared in a shelter or on the streets.

With you by our side, we can provide families in North Texas with the supportive care they need to continue caring for their pets. You can help us to:

- Provide accessible and affordable veterinary care and spay/neuter surgeries.
- Expand pet pantry programs so more families can access free pet food.
- Increase surgery capacity and education to better serve community pets.
- Work with other clinics, shelters, and rescues to streamline services.

Thank you for being such a loyal friend to pets. I hope you will make the life-changing decision today to help keep more families together.

Together, we can curb pet homelessness, support our struggling neighbors, and make sure every pet living in a loving home gets to stay there — no matter what.

With respect and gratitude,

Chris Luna, JD
President & CEO

P.S. Families in our community need our support to be able to keep their pets healthy and safe. Please make your gift today! Give online at spca.org/safepets.

What we accomplished yesterday brought hope.
But today, new animals still wait for their chance.
Please, help us save just one more life.
