You, as an entrepreneur, can hit the ground running in an industry that's predicted to grow to $22 billion by 2020.

The rocket-like ascent of the CBD industry makes it challenging to get up-to-date data. The ground under CBD legislation, insurance, health and safety, and taxes is constantly shifting.

Your host, Orleatha Smith, has gathered experts from law, marketing, accounting, insurance, growing, extracting, and more...

These pioneers are on the front lines of the CBD industry, interpreting legislation and regulations to help patients and growers around the world.

Five years ago, there was ZERO information about CBD. Now, you can join the CBD Business Summit, learn from the pros, and kickstart your business!
