

Blog Post ideas

Nigel's Notes

- Ten Tips: Watercolours
 - Discuss layering to create different shades.
 - Wet on Wet
 - Wet on Dry
 - Too much water means:
 - Too little water means:
- Artist Spotlight - Claude Monet (This could be a series to include classic painters and newer (perhaps local?) artists)
 - Include a short bio (no more than a paragraph).
 - Discuss impressionism.
 - Discuss techniques.
 - Nigel's favourite Monet painting.
 - Perhaps Nigel could create his own version of a monet and chat about the process?
- How To: Choose the right paper for your art
 - Discuss the different types of paper.
 - What is each type used for? Oils? Watercolours? Acrylic? Sketching?
 - Has Nigel used these previously? What is his experience like?
- Sculpture
 - Discuss a specific piece that Nigel has created. What gave him the idea?
 - How did he make it? Where did he start?
 - What materials did he use? Locally sourced clay?
 - Include photos of the piece.
- How To: Work with acrylic paint
 - Which brushes to use?
 - Which brand of paint?
 - How does Nigel choose something to paint?
 - What other materials might you need?
 - Blending
 - Painting details
- Bucks Art Week
 - Discuss the other artists there and their art
 - What different mediums did everyone use?
 - Did Nigel sell any art?]
 - Did Nigel learn about art in other cultures?