Las Vegas (October 2025)- Minus5° ICEBAR, the immersive icebar experience perched in the heart of the Las Vegas Strip at Mandalay Bay, The LINQ Promenade and The Venetian Resort Las Vegas, is now offering the ultimate bachelorette party package for $99 per person.

The all-in-one bachelorette package includes entry to Minus5° ICEBAR, the choice of a boutique or faux-fur coat, two cocktails served in ice glasses, a souvenir hat, a professionally taken photo plus one high-resolution digital image, access to a reserved VIP section, a customized ice cup to commemorate the celebration and one bottle of champagne for every four guests. At each location guests will step into a winter wonderland of over 100 tons of ice, designed for unforgettable photo opportunities and a unique party atmosphere.

Whether groups are planning a girls' weekend or a last-fling-before-the-ring extravaganza, this experience blends luxury, novelty and celebration under "minus-5" temperatures in the middle of the Mojave Desert. Reservations are recommended to secure the VIP section and the full complement of inclusions.

About Minus5° ICEBAR

Minus5° Ice Bar redefines nightlife on the Las Vegas Strip by transporting guests to frosty surroundings where everything from sculpture to seating to glassware is made of pure ice. Parkas and gloves are provided to keep guests comfortable as they sip craft cocktails in glassware carved from ice and explore the immersive environment. With three flagship locations at Mandalay Bay, The LINQ Promenade and The Venetian, it stands out as a "cool" celebration destination for special occasions.
