

NEXT IN DESIGN: INTERIOR TRENDS 2025

HF

HANNAH FRANCIS & CO

Molten Metals

Rippled textures and mirrored finishes evoke the sensation of metal in motion. Surfaces seem poured and fluid, capturing light and shadow in materials like burnished bronze, smoked brass, and polished pewter.

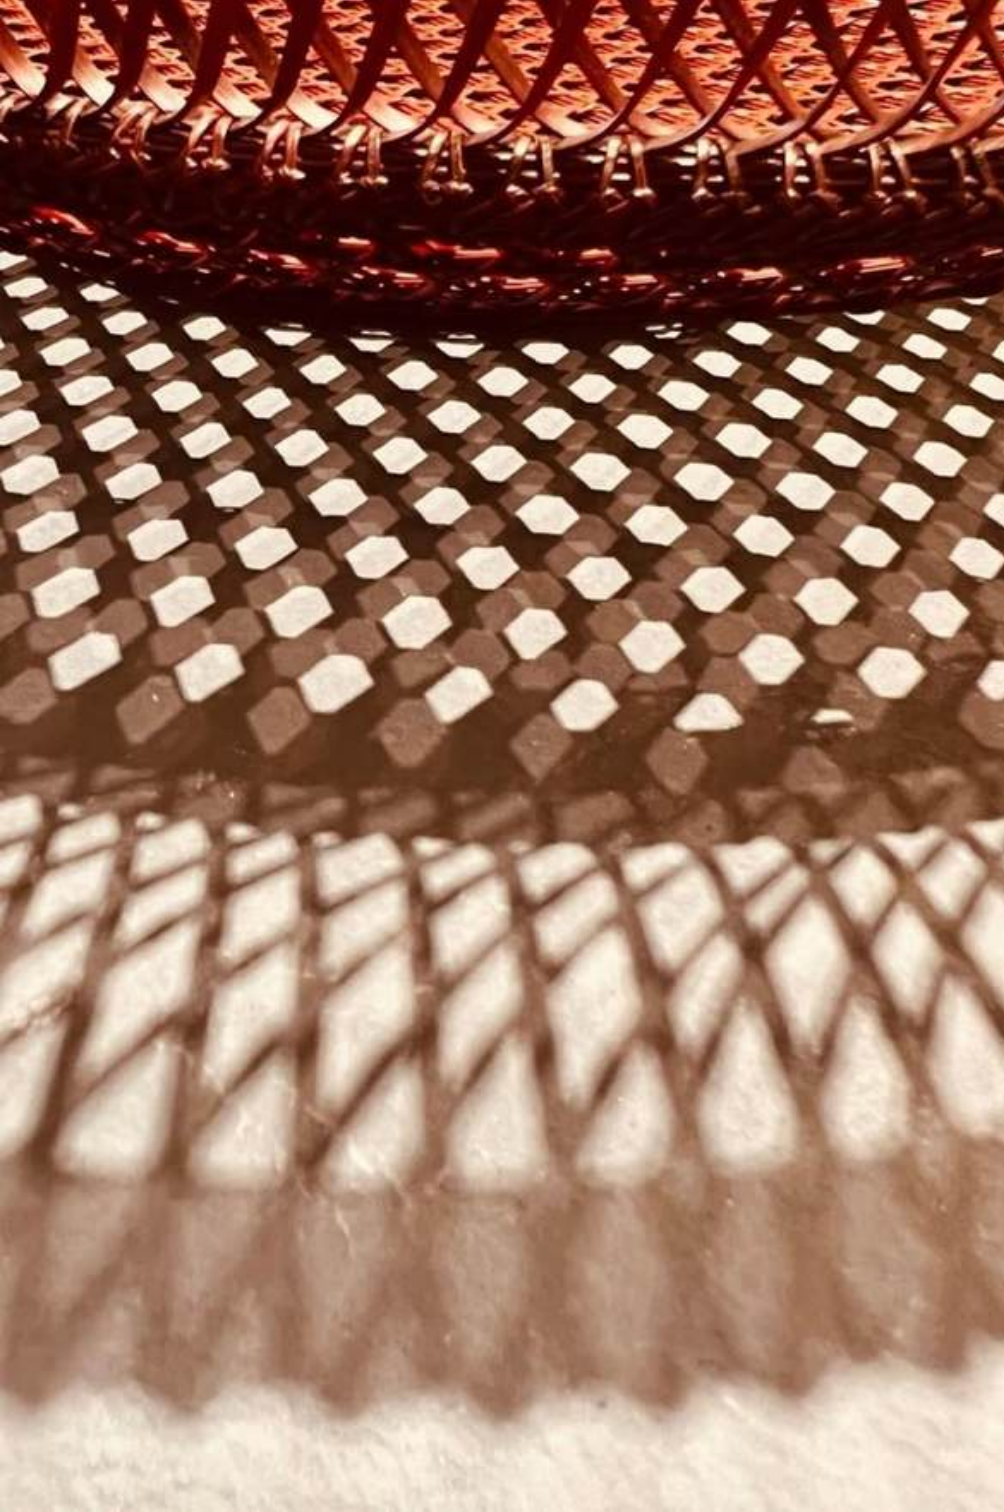

HF

HANNAH FRANCIS & CO

The Woven Edit

A study in shape and material, these woven works challenge convention with bold forms and unexpected dimensions. Crafted with care from sustainable fibers, they encompass sculptures, lighting, and storage, with each piece being both artistic and grounded.

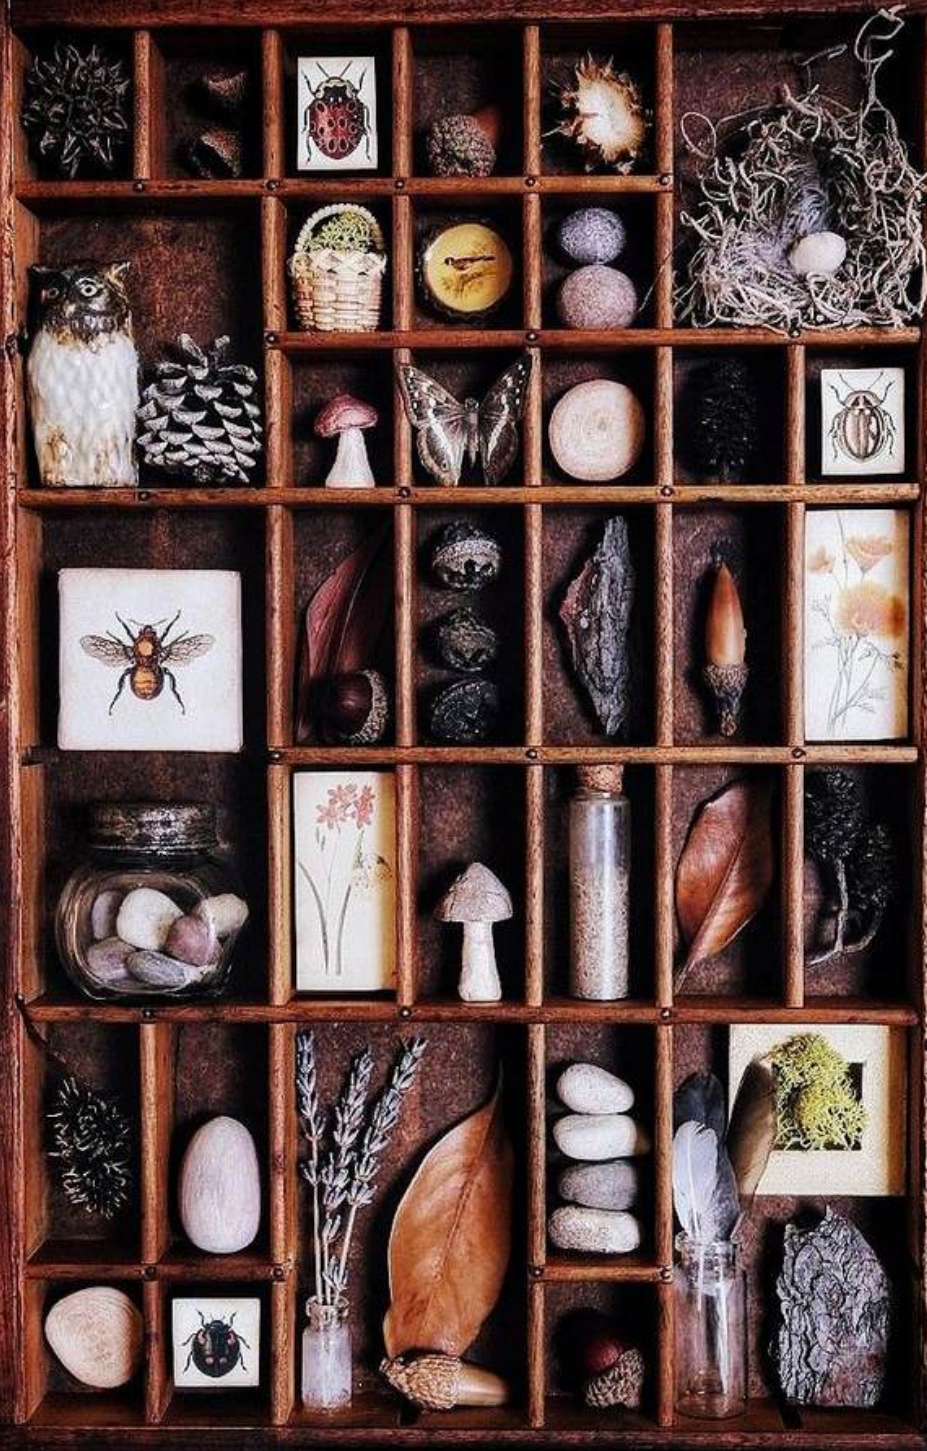

HF

HANNAH FRANCIS & CO

Curiosity Collections

A space to showcase your most treasured and unique possessions. Celebrate the art of collecting with a curated mix of sculptural objects and distinctive decor, thoughtfully arranged in cabinets, vitrines, and consoles to create a striking visual narrative.

HF

HANNAH FRANCIS & CO

Tapestry Revival

A renewed appreciation for the art of weaving brings tapestries into contemporary focus. No longer confined to tradition, these intricate works are being reimagined in fresh, expressive ways. The tapestry revival honors the heritage of handwoven artistry while embracing its potential as a dynamic presence in modern interiors.

HF

HANNAH FRANCIS & CO

Pattern Play

Celebrating the expressive nature of pattern, this trend embraces the art of personalization through layered design. From plaid and flame stitch to florals and global motifs, varied patterns are brought together with intention, creating richly individual statements.

Maximalist in spirit yet refined in execution, it reflects a confident, curated approach to style.

HF

HANNAH FRANCIS & CO

In the Studio

Individually crafted ceramics that celebrate form, material, and the artistry of the hand. These expressive works blur the line between function and art, serving as lighting, furniture details, wall decor, or sculptural objects that add depth and individuality to a space.

HF

HANNAH FRANCIS & CO

Water's Edge

Infused with the shifting hues of the Mediterranean, this color trend transitions from pale aqua to sea glass, saturated turquoise, and deep marine blue. The layered shades evoke clarity, calm, and energetic undercurrents, capturing the rhythm of water in motion. Ideal for decorative accessories, textiles, and art glass, this story introduces a fluid sense of movement and refinement.

HF

HANNAH FRANCIS & CO

Golden Hour

Radiating with life, Golden Hour captures the intensity of sunlit color at its peak. Vibrant, magnetic, and purposeful, golden yellow infuses energy and depth, making it ideal for sculptural lighting, standout seating, or a bold accent in soft goods.

HF

HANNAH FRANCIS & CO

Sienna Blend

Inspired by the warmth of rust, terracotta, and adobe, this palette reflects the richness of mineral-dyed surfaces. Earthy yet elevated, these tones provide a grounded alternative to traditional neutrals, versatile enough to elevate every expression of interior design.

HF

HANNAH FRANCIS & CO

Striped Chic

Joyful and expressive, this trend embraces bold colors and playful patterns to energize the everyday. Vivid stripes and wavy lines create a sense of rhythm and optimism throughout decor, entertaining essentials, textiles, and art, all designed to brighten mood and space.

HF

HANNAH FRANCIS & CO

