

POPULAR ROUTES

Select A Route

SANTA MONICA ROUTES

MANHATTAN BEACH ROUTES

REDONDO BEACH ROUTES

01

SANTA MONICA ROUTES

NORTH ROUTE TO WILL ROGERS STATE BEACH

Heading north from our Santa Monica location, riders can enjoy a smooth, scenic cruise along Santa Monica State Beach, passing iconic spots like the Santa Monica Pier and Palisades Park. Continue north into Will Rogers State Beach, where the crowds thin and the coastal views open up.

The full route covers about 4.5 miles to the trail's end and is around a 9-mile round trip. Of course, you don't have to go all the way; this stretch is ideal for a relaxed ride with plenty of chances to stop for photos, attractions, ocean views, beach time, or a meal.

Santa Monica Pier

Santa Monica Pier is just a 0.5-mile ride north along The Strand. It's one of the most iconic landmarks on the California coast and a must-see stop.

READ MORE →

Palisades Park

Just inland from the beach between the Pacific Coast Highway and Ocean Avenue, Palisades Park offers some of the best coastal views in Santa Monica. We fix it all!

READ MORE →

Santa Monica Stairs

Located 0.5 miles inland from the north end of Palisades Park, the Santa Monica Stairs are a local fitness landmark known for stunning coastal views

READ MORE →

Downtown Santa Monica

If you're up for a short detour inland, Downtown Santa Monica is just a few blocks from the pier and packed with shopping, dining, and entertainment.

READ MORE →

Annenberg Community Beach House

Along the coast toward the northern end of Palisades Park is the Annenberg Community Beach House.

READ MORE →

Will Rogers State Beach

At the northern end of The Strand, Will Rogers State Beach marks the final 2-mile stretch of the Marvin Braude Bike Trail.

READ MORE →

SOUTH ROUTE TO VENICE BEACH

Heading south, riders can follow The Strand toward Venice Beach, an easy and scenic 2.5-mile ride to the Venice Fishing Pier (5 miles round trip). This stretch of the Marvin Braude Bike Trail offers some of the most classic SoCal scenery; wide sandy beaches, ocean breezes, and a steady flow of joggers, skaters, and fellow cyclists.

As you approach Venice, the atmosphere becomes livelier; street art starts to appear, music drifts from the boardwalk, and you'll catch glimpses of local skaters and beachgoers soaking up the sun. At Venice Beach, you can explore the famous Boardwalk, the Venice Skate Park, or the iconic Venice Sign, all just steps from the trail.

Venice Beach Boardwalk

About a mile south of our Santa Monica location, you'll reach the Venice Beach

Mosaic Tile House

Tucked away on Palms Boulevard about a 1.5-mile ride inland from The Strand, boardwalk. This stretch is one of the most iconic spots on the California coast.

READ MORE →

Venice Canal District

Just a few blocks inland from the beach and bike path, the Venice Canal District offers a peaceful change of pace from the energy of the boardwalk.

READ MORE →

The Mosaic Tile House is one of Venice's most colorful hidden gems.

READ MORE →

Venice Fishing Pier

Extending 1,300 feet into the Pacific, the Venice Fishing Pier offers some of the best ocean views along The Strand.

READ MORE →

BOOK NOW

02

MANHATTAN BEACH ROUTES

NORTH ROUTES

From our Manhattan Beach location, heading north along The Strand offers endless options for adventure. You can take a short, relaxing cruise through nearby beach towns or make a full-day ride all the way to Santa Monica—it's entirely up to you.

The route is as flexible as you want it to be: pedal a few miles to enjoy the scenery in El Segundo or Dockweiler Beach, keep going through Playa del Rey, Venice, or go up to Santa Monica for a longer, scenic coastal journey. Guests riding north typically need a 4-hour or all-day rental due to the distance.

To Marina Del Rey (About 5 Miles One-Way, 10 Miles Round Trip)

The ride to the south end of Marina del Rey Harbor covers roughly 5 miles of some of the most scenic and diverse coastline in Los Angeles.

READ MORE →

To Santa Monica Pier (Around 11.5 Miles One-Way, 23 Miles Round Trip)

From the Venice Fishing Pier, it's a beautiful three-mile ride north along The Strand to the Santa Monica Pier.

READ MORE →

To Venice Fishing Pier (About 9 Miles One-Way, 18 Miles Round Trip)

From the southern edge of Marina del Rey, riders can loop around the harbor for an additional 3.8-mile ride (one-way) that leads to the Venice Fishing Pier.

READ MORE →

SOUTH ROUTE TO REDONDO BEACH

Heading south, the ride to Redondo Beach is one of the most relaxed and scenic stretches of The Strand. The path hugs the coastline for about five miles each way, making it a comfortable 10-mile round trip filled with ocean views, beachside cafés, and classic South Bay charm.

Most riders can complete the round trip in about two hours, but if you plan to stop for lunch, shopping, or sightseeing along the way, we recommend allowing around four hours to fully enjoy the ride. From peaceful stretches of sand in Hermosa Beach to the lively Redondo Beach Pier, there's plenty to see and do, no matter your pace.

Sand Dune Park

Before you head south along The Strand, make a quick detour inland to visit Sand Dune Park, one of Manhattan Beach's most unique local landmarks.

Manhattan Beach Pier

The Manhattan Beach Pier is a must-visit landmark, about 1.3 miles into your ride. Stretching 928 feet into the Pacific Ocean, it's one of the most photographed spots in the South Bay.

READ MORE →

Hermosa Beach

Hermosa Beach is a laid-back, lively stop along The Strand that perfectly captures classic Southern California beach culture.

READ MORE →

photographed spots in the South Bay.

READ MORE →

Redondo Beach

At the southern end of your ride, Redondo Beach offers the perfect mix of coastal charm, oceanfront dining, and classic seaside attractions.

READ MORE →

BOOK NOW

03

REDONDO BEACH ROUTES

NORTH ROUTE TO WILL ROGERS STATE BEACH

Heading north from our Santa Monica location, riders can enjoy a smooth, scenic cruise along Santa Monica State Beach, passing iconic spots like the Santa Monica Pier and Palisades Park. Continue north into Will Rogers State Beach, where the crowds thin and the coastal views open up.

The full route covers about 4.5 miles to the trail's end and is around a 9-mile round trip. Of course, you don't have to go all the way; this stretch is ideal for a relaxed ride with plenty of chances to stop for photos, attractions, ocean views, beach time, or a meal.

North Route

Heading north from our Redondo Beach location, riders can enjoy a beautiful 1.5-mile cruise along the shoreline to the Redondo Beach Pier, passing wide sandy beaches, volleyball courts, and ocean views the entire way.

READ MORE →

South Route

Heading south from our Redondo Beach Beachside Bikes location, the path gently winds along the coast for about 0.7 miles to Torrance Beach, marking the southern end of the Marvin Braude Bike Trail.

READ MORE →

BOOK NOW

READY FOR YOUR BEACHSIDE BIKES EXPERIENCE

BOOK A BIKE

GET REPAIR QUOTE

QUICK LINKS

- RENTALS
- REPAIRS
- LOCATIONS
- GROUP EVENTS

COMPANY

- ABOUT US
- CONTACT US

CONTACT

- Email support@beachsidebikes.com
- Santa Monica (424) 407-2024
- Manhattan (424) 999-9517
- Redondo (424) 999-9040

GALLERY

