

Make or Break Your Case: Why Hire an Attorney?

Most immigrants are anxious when finding themselves in immigration court proceedings. They anticipate the decision the judge will render, and what that decision will mean for their life. Did you know that many times the decision comes sooner than expected, for very unexpected reasons? Such is missing a court date! That failure to show up becomes an “in absentia” order. This can change the outcome of the case and your life, long before the decision day. A simple oversight or miscommunication was made. This is only one example of something avoidable having gone wrong in your case. Get the legal immigration help you deserve to understand your next step!

On your first court hearing you will be served with a lot of legal advisals. That means instructions. The court house may be crowded, you may have many questions, and there will be stress involved in this unfamiliar setting. Understandably so. It can be confusing, and a proceeding that is so influential to your life is not something you want to have any confusion with! Even missing a court hearing can ensure a deportation order, long before you even begin to state your claim and tell your story.

This is where a legal professional alongside you will be of the utmost importance in such a critical time. Everything will be handled for you. You will have ongoing communication, answers to your questions, guidance, and all you have to do is to consistently work alongside your attorney. A professional that will take your case and let you focus on the many other things that matter. The strategy and logistics will all be handled, from making sure all your appointments and requirements are met, on time, and prepared in the best way.

You may have many questions, and with a legal expert on your side you can guarantee they will be answered. In a whirlwind of paperwork and instructions, you can rest easier knowing your proceeding is in the hands of someone whose role is to provide legal representation and advocate on behalf of their clients.

According to the American Immigration Council (americanimmigrationcouncil.org), they report that 96% of non-detained immigrants with legal representation attended all of their court hearings during the ten year period between 2008 and 2018. This demonstrates the significant impact that attorney support can have on your case organization.

Ultimately, you are in a difficult time, but you do not need to do so alone! A legal professional is a click away ready to help you in your journey. Are you ready to get started?
