Gala Dinner and Awards: Cheers to an Unforgettable Night!

Energy, achievements, and memories – all in one night!

What a night to remember! On Friday, 12 December 2025, Atlantis The Palm came alive with laughter, music, and celebrations as we hosted the Bayut & dubizzle Gala Dinner and Awards. From the moment guests walked in, the energy was electric – colleagues dressed to impress, ready to connect, celebrate and have a blast after a successful 2025.

The evening was packed with recognition, entertainment, and friendly competition. Fun games kept everyone on their toes, sparking laughs, cheers, and a little healthy rivalry. And the music? Let's just say the dance floor was LIT. Everyone got to groove, let loose, and enjoy the night.

Congratulations to all those who were recognised for their excellence across the organisation and a big thank you to everyone who attended and helped us make these moments so special!

Our Eventful December

The Latest Addition to Bayut's Glorious Achievements

Haider Khan featured on Entrepreneur Middle East's The 100

We're proud to share that our CEO, Haider Khan has been recognised in The 100 by Entrepreneur Middle East, the publication's annual list spotlighting the most influential leaders across the GCC.

The recognition reflects Haider's leadership and the collective impact of the teams across Bayut, dubizzle and the wider Dubizzle Group as we continue to build trusted, market-leading platforms in the region.

Haider Khan on Building Trust in the UAE Property Market

Check out Haider Khan's interview with Economy Middle East

In an interview with Economy Middle East, Haider also shared his views on building a more transparent and trusted real estate ecosystem in the UAE. He highlighted the importance of regulatory alignment, close collaboration with government authorities, and the role of technology in ensuring accurate, reliable property information. Haider emphasised that long-term trust is built through consistency, accountability and a strong focus on user confidence as the market continues to mature.

International Disabilities Day: Inclusion Beyond What We See

Awareness starts with understanding

We marked the day by raising awareness around hidden disabilities and reaffirming our membership in the Hidden Disabilities Sunflower Program. Employees engaged with a short video and learning resources to better understand how the initiative supports recognition, inclusion and everyday awareness. The moment reinforced our commitment to making the invisible visible.

Honouring Arabic Language Day

A language shared, a culture celebrated

We celebrated Arabic Language Day with a short video featuring colleagues from across the region. The one-minute clip highlighted that Arabic is a shared language, embraced by native speakers and learners alike. The moment encouraged appreciation for its cultural richness and the role it plays in connecting our teams and communities.

World Braille Day: Every Dot Counts

Empowering independence through Braille

World Braille Day on January 4, celebrates the vital role of Braille in enabling accessible communication for people with visual impairments. The day reminds us how Braille supports independence, helping everyone access information in everyday life. It also encourages awareness of inclusive practices that make public spaces and materials easier for all to navigate.

Poetry at Work Day: Words That Connect Us

POETRY AT WORK DAY

18th January 2026

Sharing thoughts, one line at a time

On January 18, Poetry at Work Day will allow employees to take a creative pause, sharing short lines of their own poetry. The activity offers a moment for reflection and self-expression, giving colleagues a chance to read and appreciate each other's words. It's a simple celebration of language, creativity, and connection across teams.
