Why Using a CDFA® to Prepare a Financial Affidavit will Change the Outcome

"Today I was looking over a Financial Affidavit used in my state and was reminded of the difference in the depth of information and, subsequently, the analysis that I perform when I do my financial analysis versus what clients get when they prepare their Financial Affidavit. (Note: Financial Affidavits are called different things in different states. For example, in North Carolina, it's called an "Affidavit of Financial Standing," in New Jersey, it's called a "Case Information Statement (CIS)," and in New York, it's called a "Statement of Net Worth.")"
